A Rock and Roll retelling....

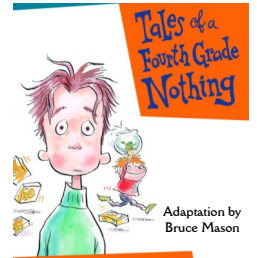

etaphasia

Based on the Grimm's fairy tale, THE TWELVE DANCING PRINCESSES, fantasy meets reality in this contemporary rock and roll musical. When Angie Anderson keeps finding piles of worn out shoes in her room every morning, she decides to investigate the mystery but instead ends up getting magically sucked into the fantasy world of Metaphasia with her little brother Howie. Their adventures along the way are harrowing to say the least, but as usual...in the end everyone ends up happily ever after! This musical is appropriate for students of all ages.

Wednesday through Friday
May 16-18, 2012

Story by Judy Blume

TALES OF A FOURTH GRADE NOTHING

Oh, brother! Sibling mischief and best pal escapades are the problems Peter Hatcher faces in his attempts to deal with his impossible little brother, Fudge. Based on the popular title by perennial favorite Judy Blume, Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing is a humorous look at family life and the troubles that can only be caused by a younger sibling. Appropriate for students of all ages.
